Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr. Peter Fonseca

As I get older life seems to be passing by more quickly. We live such busy lives that it can be easy for us to jump from one event to the next, checking things off our list without ever taking time to step back and take a look at the whole picture. Yet, if you are anything like me, when we live moment to moment, we rarely take time to step away to focus on the big picture and we become focused only on ourselves.

For many of us time is our most precious commodity, but if we are truly going to live our lives after the example of Jesus we must take time daily to step back and see the whole picture. When was the last time you stopped for a moment to recognize all of the blessings in your life? I have found that if I take 5 minutes at the end of my day to prayerfully think back on my day, asking God for forgiveness in those times when I have fallen short and giving thanks to God for all of the good things of that day, my life seems to stay in perspective.

No matter how difficult of a day I have had, every night, without fail, as I prayerfully step back and evaluate my day, I find myself filled with gratitude. Gratitude for the fact that I was given another day to live, gratitude for my health, for being assigned to such a great parish, and for the many great things that happened in that day, which I may not have even recognized in the moment. This gratitude then spurs me on to greater service because in recognizing the blessings in my life I recall that I am called as a Christian to be a blessing to others.

Friends, gratitude is the root of all true love and all true sacrifice. When we recognize how much we have been given in our lives, we cannot help but be compelled to give back to God and to others. All of us have been given so much and so we must remember the words of Christ, who said "much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Every day as I think back over my day I give thanks to God for being at a parish with parishioners who so generously give of their time, talent and treasure. Your generosity spurs me to give everything I can to serve this parish. Friends, St. Theodore Parish is a parish for the people and it requires your generosity to help make it the amazing and life changing place it is. And so as we move into the start of the fall, I would like to invite each of us to pause for a few moments, to step back and think about the big picture of our lives and then, filled with gratitude, ask God how concretely He wants us to give back to Him and our neighbor.

To help us in this prayerful reflection you will find, on page 4 of this week's bulletin, a list of the 30 plus organizations in our parish that help us continue the life changing work of this parish. I invite you to prayerfully consider if God may be calling you to serve in one of those organizations. Secondly, I am inviting you, as you consider the many blessings God has bestowed upon you to consider how you can financially support our parish. Our parishioners are already so generous in their financial support. Yet, if each family could give just one additional dollar a week to our parish, we would receive over $30,000 a year more and if each family could give just five additional dollars a week, we would receive $170,000 a year which could be used to help us continue to sustain the great work of our parish, while allowing us to grow.

Please allow me to conclude by saying thank you! Your generosity continues to inspire me to be the best priest I can be and to partner with our dedicated and professional staff to serve you in the best way we can. Together our parish can continue to build on the legacy left us by those who have gone before us so that St. Theodore can continue to be the sacred and life-changing place it continues to be.

As always, know of my daily prayers for you and your family and if we can ever be of any assistance, please do not hesitate to ask.

God Bless,
Fr. Peter Fonseca

Parish Organizations

Commentary

Our parish is composed of over 30 different organizations of men and women who come together to offer their time and talents to help make our parish the special place that it is. This summer, the parish council met with the heads of these parish organization. The primary purpose of that meeting was to come together to hear what each organization is doing and begin to think about how we can better support one another.

Following that meeting, the parish council grouped our organizations into 6 different categories (Liturgy and Worship, Christian Formation, Christian Service, Stewardship and Development, Athletics, and Facilities) and assigned themselves as contacts to each of these groups. Between now and the end of May, when the current parish council term ends, the parish council intends to meet with each organization by category to explore further how we can work together to move our parish forward.

At our first meeting this summer, nearly every group mentioned that they were looking for additional members. I ask you to consider praying about how God may be calling you to use your time and talents to help our parish continue to build up the Body of Christ here in Flint Hill. If you feel called to join any of these organizations, I invite you to email the organization head. If for some reason you do not hear back from the organization, or if you are looking for more information about a specific organization, I invite you to email one of the two parish council members assigned to that organization (listed below each grouping of organizations) and they will be happy to help.
